

This diagram shows the top-down view of the assembled robot chassis. The motor is mounted on the left side, connected to the gear. The sensor is mounted on the right side. The chassis is shown with its four wheels and the internal components.

- SEE NOTE MOD1